MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN
COMMITTEE OF VICE CHANCELLORS AND DIRECTORS (CVCD)

Senior Professor Sujeewa Amarasena

*Chairman of the Committee of Vice Chancellors and Directors
(CVCD)*

It is my pleasure and privilege to send this message for the souvenir marking the inauguration of Sri Lanka University Games 2023, scheduled to be held at Eastern University premises/ grounds from 1st of August 2023 to 08th of September 2023. University system was not able to hold it in 2022 as planned due to pandemic and the economic crisis. Hence, I wish to congratulate the Eastern University of Sri Lanka for hosting it successfully in 2023.

During this period a large number of young university undergraduate sportsmen and women from every part of Sri Lanka, who are destined to become the driving force of the development of this country in years to come, will be vying for supremacy in their respective arenas, taking a break from their hectic academic schedules. Some individually and some as teams, will be doing their best to crown their respective universities as the champions. SLUG 2023 will be a great opportunity to witness and appreciate all this talent.

It is indisputable that the future of all these budding scholars depends primarily upon their academic achievements compelling them to devote a great portion of their time and effort to assure better grades in academic work. However, it is of paramount importance to stay fit and healthy, both in body and mind, to reap benefits of their achievements in later life to be productive and free of non-communicable diseases to pay back the country which supported their higher education. Their discipline leadership potential, capacity in teamwork, planning skills, ability to withstand stress and accept victory and defeat with the same courage and attitude as well as their emotional intelligence will be developed to a higher level through the involvement in sports. Hence participation in sports and co/extracurricular activities are important. These sportsmen and women will have better opportunities in securing higher positions in professional work and career advancements would be quick in all sectors ie. private, academic, state.

As all the contestants are rallied under the flags of their respective Universities, it is mandatory to reward and honor Universities in an indisputable manner. The existing SLUG scoring system assures automatic dominance for certain Universities already well-established in sports, leaving a very slim opportunity for an up-and-coming University to emerge as champions. This emphasizes the need for developing a more modern and advanced scoring system for selecting SLUG champions by providing a level playing ground for all the Universities.

Eastern University is hosting SLUG for the first time and I take this opportunity to convey my sincere gratitude to both Eastern University and Sri Lanka University Sports Association for their dedication to make this event a tremendous success despite all the hardships. The University Grants Commission and Government of Sri Lanka ie Ministry of Education and Higher education supported the event despite financial difficulties. All the state universities shared the additional costs of hosting this event. It is a good team effort to be shown as an example in the future for this country. I wish to thank all these institutions for these contributions and wish all the very best for all the contestants to have courage to contest justly and ethically to make their Universities proud of their performance as the Chairperson the Committee of Vice Chancellors and the Directors.

History of Sri Lanka University Games (SLUG)

Inter-University sports championships have been organized since the latter part of the 1950s. The first University Sports Festival was held in 1980 at the University of Peradeniya in response to a suggestion made by Mr. Lesley Handunge, the Director of Physical Education at the University of Peradeniya. Mr. Lesley Handunge, himself a graduate of the University of Peradeniya, was a skilled sportsman who had represented Sri Lanka twice in boxing at the Olympic Games. Furthermore, having led the Sri Lankan team at the World University Sports Festival and several other international sports festivals, Mr. Handunge was capable of organizing a festival among universities that adhered to the standards and traditions of the Olympic Games. Thus, following this tradition, Sri Lankan universities organize a festival once every three years, and in 2023, the Eastern University, Sri Lanka, is hosting the 14th Sri Lanka University Games.

The grand sports event 'SLUG' was organized in a very successful manner by the following universities:

01. University of Peradeniya - 1980

EASTERN UNIVERSITY, SRI LANKA : A HISTORICAL OVERVIEW

The roots of Eastern University trace back to the post-democratic socialist Republic transformation era of Sri Lanka. The Eastern Province, with its diverse cultural heritage and a growing population, began to recognize the need for accessible and quality higher education. In 1981, responding to this demand, the Eastern University was established under the Eastern University Act, becoming the first university in the region.

Eastern University, Sri Lanka, was established on the 1st of October 1986, through a University Order dated 26th September 1986, issued under Section 2 of the Universities Act No: 16 of 1978. The university was preceded by 'Batticaloa University College,' established on the 1st of August 1981, which began its operations in the buildings of the Vantharumoolai Madya Maha Vidyalayam. Additionally, over 100 acres of land have been acquired and added to the original campus. This land has been used to construct student hostels, staff quarters, and numerous new buildings, with more construction projects planned.

Batticaloa University College commenced with two faculties: The Faculty of Science and the Faculty of Agriculture, both of which were affiliated with the University of Peradeniya. In 1988, two new faculties were established - the Faculty of Commerce & Management with the Departments of Economics, Commerce & Management, and the Faculty of Cultural Studies with the Departments of Arabic, Islamic Studies, and Fine Arts. Later, in 1991, the Faculty of Cultural Studies expanded to include the Department of Languages and the Department of Social Science. It was then renamed the Faculty of Arts & Culture.

In response to increasing demand, three new faculties - Health Care Sciences, Technology, and Graduate Studies - have emerged. The Faculty of Health Care Sciences was established in 2005, the Faculty of Technology in 2017, and the most recently developed Faculty, the Faculty of Graduate Studies, was established last year, in 2022.

As a result, the university now comprises a total of seven faculties: Science, Agriculture, Commerce & Management, Arts & Culture, Health Care Sciences, Technology, and Graduate Studies. These faculties collectively produce numerous capable graduates and post-graduates who excel in their skills and realize their potential in both national and international development.

- Trincomalee Campus, Eastern University, Sri Lanka

During its formative years, the Trincomalee Campus functioned as an Affiliated University College (AUC), operating under the umbrella of affiliated colleges funded by the University Grants Commission in the early nineties. This initiative aimed to provide educational opportunities to those for whom conventional universities had closed their doors. The Trincomalee Affiliated University College, in turn, offered two diploma programs: the Diploma in English and the Diploma in Accountancy and Finance. The former was supervised by the University of Sri Jayewardenepura, while the latter was under the supervision of the Eastern University, Sri Lanka.

When the affiliated university college system was abolished, the Trincomalee AUC found itself integrated into the Eastern University. The two degree programs that were initially conducted here, under two different faculties of the Eastern University, Sri Lanka, had the fortunate foundation of the diploma holders of the AUC.

Subsequently, this college acquired its identity as the Trincomalee Campus of the Eastern University, Sri Lanka, through a gazette notification in mid-2001. This notification provided for the establishment of two faculties: the Faculty of Communication & Business Studies and the Faculty of Applied Science. Furthermore, a newly established faculty named Siddha Medicine was introduced in August 2023, marking its recent inception.

- Swamy Vipulananda Institute of Aesthetic Studies (SVIAS), Eastern University, Sri Lanka

During its early stages, the Swami Vipulananda College of Music and Dance (SVCMD) was established on 29th May 1982 in Kalladi Uppodai, Batticaloa, by the Ministry of Regional Affairs and Hindu Culture, in memory of Swami Vipulananda.

In response to a comprehensive proposal submitted by the Eastern University, Sri Lanka (EUSL), the University Grants Commission, in a letter dated 13th March 1997, granted permission for the enrollment of Diploma holders from SVCMD into EUSL's degree programs. The SVCMD was officially handed over to the Ministry of Higher Education and Information Technology Development by the Ministry of Religious and Cultural Affairs on 20th April 2001. From 2001 to 2005, the institution was overseen by the Faculty of Arts and Culture at Eastern University, Sri Lanka.

Recognized as an institute of higher learning, the Swami Vipulananda College of Music and Dance was affiliated with the Eastern University, Sri Lanka, for the purpose of providing, promoting, and developing higher education in Aesthetic Studies. This affiliation was formalized through a Gazette notification of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka on 14th March 2005. Consequently, the institute was renamed as the Swami Vipulananda Institute of Aesthetic Studies (SVIAS), Eastern University, Sri Lanka. The Departments of Carnatic Music, Dance, Drama & Theatre, and Visual & Technological Arts, pertaining to the discipline, were approved. Over the years, the institution has produced multi-talented young graduates.

IMPERATIVE MOVES BY THE PHYSICAL EDUCATION, EUSL

Sports facilities are available at the main campus in Vantharumoolai. This department is responsible for organizing and administering the Physical Education and recreational programs of the University.

Sports activities are promoted by the Sports Council and Sports Advisory Board, and the department provides facilities for various games.

Specialist coaching is provided by Specialist Coaches, and the best athletes participate in the Inter University Mini Olympics and the Sri Lanka University Games (SLUG) Competitions. There are two bodies, the Sports Advisory Board and the Sports Council, which are established to promote sports activities at the university.

THE FISU and IT'S PHILOSOPHY...

The FISU (International University sports Federation) was formed within the university institutions in order to promote sporting values and encourage sporting practice in harmony with and complementary to the university spirit.

To promote sporting values means encouraging friendship, fraternity, fair-play, perseverance, integrity, co-operation and application amongst students who will one day hold responsible, and even key positions, in politics, the economy, culture and industry. As allies or competitors, perhaps even as antagonists, these men and women will have learned how to collaborate and confront every eventuality whilst respecting the ethical code enshrined in these values. Promoting sporting values and sporting practice also means giving a new dimension to the university spirit in study, research and discipline, through the strong affirmation of the full humanist development of the individual and thus, of society at large. This development is not just intellectual, but also moral and physical.

The university student should be able to practice sport at his own chosen level within his university. Even if he reaches a high level of competition in his sport, the student will not look upon these competitions as ends in themselves, but as an element in the development of his own potential, in the same way he prepares for his professional life. With its international dimension, FISU brings together the university community in the wider sense, necessarily transcending the conflicts which divide countries and peoples, to achieve harmony between academic excellence and Top-Level Sports, or competition and leisure Sports. The world university sporting movement also aims to become a powerful channel of communication for bringing together the various communities whose rich is all too a source of conflict today.

The philosophy necessarily implies that the FISU should be not only international, but also independent and free, regardless of the source of financial and technical support from its institutional, academic, and financial or media partners.

The FISU's main responsibility is the supervision of both the summer and winter universiade as well as the World University Championships.

The FISU is composed of a general Assembly which represent the members (141 national university sports federations). It is the FISU's main governing body. It elects the executive Committee for a period of four years, which takes all the necessary decisions for the smooth running of the FISU. Then permanent commissions advise the Executive Committee in their specialized areas to assist in its duties. The FISU is funded through subscription, organizing and entry fees, television incomes and marketing activities.

The FISU was officially formed in 1949, but its origins go back to the 1920s when Frenchman, Jean Petitjean, organized the first 'World Student Games' in Paris in May 1923. In a new start in 1957, the French Federation organized a world university sports championship which brought together students at Games' in Paris in May 1923. In a new start in 1957, the French Federation organized a world university sports championship which brought together students from the Eastern and Western blocks. From this meeting came the desire to organize a universal event in which students from all over the world could participate.
